Obedience training is extremely important for a JRT. All Jack Russells should know the basic commands (sit, down, stay, and come) and should perform them consistently. Obedience training takes patience and practice. This means you must be involved in your terrier's training and must reward and reinforce the commands on a regular basis.

Tips for Raising a Jack Russell Terrier - dummies

Dog dummies, often referred to as bumpers, are excellent training tools that can also be used for play time. These training tools are available in varying levels of firmness. Typically a soft dummy will help teach your dog how to lightly retrieve toys, animals, etc, while a firmer dummy may be more resistant to chewing.
