I have to admit, I'm a fan of Josh Lanyon's stories. Everything I've read of his is well plotted and paced, interesting, and engaging with a delightfully clean style. Don't Look Back is no different. I enjoyed the story immensely, and I thought Peter and Mike were well drawn, for the length of the story. And about the story...

Josh Wilson - Don't Look Back Lyrics | AZLyrics.com

We look back when wondering what more we could have done, or what we could have done differently. We look back when we mourn the loss of something or someone we loved. The problem though with looking back this way is that it can keep us from really living in the present and without being able to give our all to the present, our future will not become all that it is capable of becoming.
