Prophets Pitfalls And Principles Gods

Book three in Hamon's informative series on contemporary prophecy, this book looks at the pitfalls and principles of prophecy, offering valuable information about what to expect (and what to look out for) when a prophetic ministry is active. Though all the books in this series are practical, this volume is particularly practical, offering insightful analysis of the problems that prophets will be challenged with and of the process that prophets will go through as God perfects them and their ...

Jonah's Pride & Judgement Pitfall. Jonah had the weed seed attitude of pride and a root problem of being too judgmental (Jonah 1-4). While Moses was too motivated by mercy, Jonah was motivated too much by judgment. He was more interested in seeing God destroy the wicked than in seeing God have mercy on them.

Jer. 28:9: But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the Lord only if his prediction comes true. True prophets are those sent by God. A messenger does not carry his own authority. He speaks with the authority of the one who sent him. The Prophets words are words of God.
