Year Zero Rob Reid
Rob Reid's Year Zero is a fun little irreverent story about the long-term and far-reaching implications of copyright infringement. Reid takes a savvy mid-level copyright lawyer and thrusts him into the center of a galactic spectacle, in which aliens and other higher-evolved species are stuck in their own morass of legal interpretations.

Rob Reid (Author of Year Zero) - Goodreads
I think that this proves what an extraordinary achievement After On really is; Reid took many of the characters from Year Zero and reworked them into a completely unrelated story. This novel, Year Zero, is a fine book in it's own right, with lots of ingenious ideas. Wait 'till you get a load of what the aliens have done with our music and our DNA!
